ES PRECAUCIONES

- A pesar de los efectos terapéuticos preventivos y relajantes del hidromasaje, es importante señalar que en caso de afecciones agudas, cardiopatías descompensadas, hipertensiones graves o cierto tipo de enfermedades infecciosas, así como para determinado tipo de personas (niños, ancianos, embarazadas), deben tenerse en cuenta unas condiciones especiales de duración, temperatura y frecuencia. En estas situaciones es recomendable la consulta previa al médico.
- Se recomienda no tomar un baño después de beber alcohol ni después de comer.
- No utilizar un baño de espuma con el hidromasaje ya que la cantidad de espuma generada puede sobresalir de la bañera.
- Se recomienda que el uso de este producto por niños sea siempre supervisado por un adulto.
- Las personas ancianas o discapacitadas deben tener especial cuidado al usar este producto.
- En caso de que la dureza del agua de la instalación sea muy elevada, para tener la seguridad de que el equipo de hidromasaje funciona correctamente conviene instalar un descalcificador.

EN PRECAUTIONS

- In spite of the preventive and relaxing therapeutic effects of hydro-massage, it is important to note that in the case of acute conditions, uncompensated heart disease, serious hypertension or certain infectious diseases, and in the case of certain groups (children, the elderly, and pregnant women), certain special conditions regarding bath duration, temperature and frequency must be borne in mind. In these situations it is advisable to consult your doctor first.
- It is recommended not to take a bath directly after drinking alcohol or having a meal.
- Do not use foam-bath products with the whirlpool since the amount of foam produced could lead to overflows.
- It is recommended that children are supervised by an adult while using this product.
- Elderly and disabled people should be specially careful when using this equipment.
- To ensure troublefree operation of the whirlpool system in areas with particularly hard water, it is advisable to install a water softener.
